

I am now getting about one unsolicited commercial fax at my home each week. Of course the caller ID is blocked and the only phone numbers are machine answered 800 numbers. I believe this practice still violates federal regulations.

I can find no other avenue to lodge my complaint because the local phone company has no authority over calls that originate outside of their system.